Mary Post and G. V. Wallop to Wed Saturday

Bridegroom Is Heir to the Earldom of Portsmouth; Countess To Be Present at the Sayville Ceremony

Douglas Wedding To-day

Daughter of Harry Douglas to Become Mrs. Seaman: Edith Judson Is Engaged

Miss Mary Lawrence Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Kirtzing Post, ill be married to Gerard Vernon Walion, son of the Hon. Oliver Henry Wallop and Mrs. Wallop, of Big Horn Ranch, Sheridan County, Wyoming, on Saturday in St. John's Church, Sayfile, L. 1, The ceremony will be performed by the rector, the Rev. John at the home of the bride's parents.

The Countess of Portsmouth, who srived last Friday from England, and arrived last Friday from England, and is a guest of Mrs. Lewis H. Lapham, of 420 Fark Avenuo, is an aunt of the bridegroom and came over for the wedding. Mr. Wallop will eventually succeed to the Earldom of Portsmouth. His mother is a daughter of the late Juige S. J. Walker, of Chicago.

The marriage of Miss Anne Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Douglas, to Irving Seaman, of Milwaukee, will take place to-day at the country place of the bride's parents, at Great Barrington, Mass. Miss Blanche Page, place of the bride's parents, at Great Barrington, Mass. Miss Blanche Page, a cousin of the bride and daugnter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Page, of 182 West Fifty-eighth Street, will be the maid of honor and only bridal attend-ant. Harold Seaman will serve as his brother's best man and the ushers will be Harold Knowles of the care brothers best had and the usners will be Harold Knowles, of this city; J. Sheldon Potter, of Rye; E. A. Thornwall and Frederick McGonigal, of Atlanta, Ga, and Douglas and J. Camp Van Another wedding to-day is that of Mrs. Deborah Sayles Hill, daughter of the late Frederick Clarke Sayles, of Pawtucket, R. I., to Frank Farwell Ferry, of Lake Forrest, Ill., at the home of Mrs. Hill's brother, Robert W. Sayles, of Chatham, Mass. Mr. Ferry and his bride will live in Lake Forest, where he has purchased the house of Mrs. George H. Thorne.

denly one idea owned his soul!

He searched for the orchid in many lands.

though a waft of its perfume meant death. The marvel of them all, like a sensuous Oriental beauty, captivated his emotions—held him enthralled. It struck terror to the hearts of native and foreigner; they shook off its influence—he shuddered under it. But what of the French girl and Vlei-la, the flower-like native maid who knew the secret of the lustful blossoms?-

A tale of the South Seas, this story, in two

The American MAGAZINE on the Orient

Over sixty illustrations-special art insert of eight pages

This magazine of rare tales and strange customs—of foreign life and remote peoples—is publishing fiction that leaves a lasting impression. It shows the human side of Oriental character, so long inscrutable, and drops the gang-plank of imagination on new shores swept by breezes fresh with the tang of Eastern romance.

A study of the 'Warring Mentalities of the Far East' -the case of Korea and Japan, a remarkable human document of political and racial issues, told as a drama.

The smooth finesse of "A Turkish Coffee House Tale," wherein man allows that the wisdom of woman is not

"Colonel Thomas Lawrence, the Man" -in which you climpse, with the privileged few, the quiet ways of an

An exhibition of the "Darius Greens and their Flying Machines" in Petersburg, a century ago, and the

The source of many Eastern textile designs-"Frag-

An art insert of 8 pages-"The Fishermen of Japan."

Out Today—35 cents per copy—All Newsstands

ASIA PUBLISHING COMPANY

New York City

always as "nut-shells cast upon a roof-top."

Englishman whose exploits startled the world.

in the same issue—ascension of the "flying ball."

ments of Angkor Wat."

627 Lexington Avenue

parts, is as vivid in imagery, as exotic in color, as appealing in its mystery as any you have read.

Mrs. Morton Breese

WANAMAKER BOOK SHELF

The paper bindings of recent French books make their mark upon the Shelf today.

'Du Cote de Chez Swann" and "A L'Ombre des Jeunes Filles en Fleurs" By Marcel Proust; novels of the young French novellst tch took the Goncourt prize in 1919; orful and masterly; 2 volumes; $2.50.

By Romain Rolland; brilliant satire and fantastic drams which Liluit, Illusion, is the heroined the war the occasion; $1.

'La France Victorieuse" By Paul Deschanel;

ollection of the speeches of the pres French President made during the beginning August 4, 1914; $1. 'Monsieur des Lourdines"

By Alphonse de Chateaubriand; ne tale of a country gentleman in ki0; of his love for his estate and his ng's all but final distasts for the beau-ful old estate; $1.

By Emile Clermont; o elsters and one man make an in-esting complication. Laura makes sacrifice: $1

'Ni Ange, Ni Bete" By Andra Maurois;

'L'Ame des Anglais'' . By "Foemina"; these chapter heads suggest the phases of the Britisher which impress the Frenchman: insensibility, our asceti-cism and their sensuality, religion, fair play, sport, aesthetic sense, love of tardens; $1.

rardens; $1.

Benjamin Rabier picture books for children are farnous for their humor and craftsmanship, $2.

Contest de Perrault, Fables of La Fontaine, Don Quichotte, Guiliver's Travels have been translated into French charmingly illustrated and edited in small volumes, 50c each.

Telephone orders receive brompt and careful attention.

Eighth Gallery, New Building.

JOHN WANAMAKER Broadway at Ninth, New York.

Former President Of Bronx and Son Quit Rent Hearing

Mrs. George H. Thorne.

Mrs. William Beardeley Judson, of fir Medison Avenue. he sagagement of her daughter, Miss Edith Adelade Judson, to Raymond Gana Merceith, so of Dr. William Banklead Merceith, of Norfolk, Va. at the Lenox Club, in the Berkshires, for the fall.

Mrs. Henry I. Jud St. Second at Munt St. Gas of St. Marry School at Mount St

Athletes See Hope of Winning Federal Judge Reverses
Honors Now That McGrath

Additional Reverses Hope of Winning Honors Now That McGrath

And McDanald Associated Himself in Liquor Case

And McDanald Associated Himself in Liquor Case

The development of the Control of the Cont

and McDonald Are Cone Avenue home.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Ashton, of Philadelphia gave a children's party this afternoon at their place Artira, it the other large substitution of their way across the Atlantic the other large substitution.

The Tribune Fresh Air Fund

Real Neighbors Aid Fourteen-Year-Old Housewife

not consider a compromise and left the room.

Justice Harry Robitzek, of the Bronx Municipal Court, announced yesterday that the Lockwood Joint Housing Legislative Commission will meet Friday evening at the Morris High School, in the Bronx, for discussion of the rent laws and need for additional legislation. Justices Robitzek, Morris, Shell and Scanlan will speak.

Caruso to Draw Cartoons

At Southampton Fair

Dialand Newton In To Rom.

Himself in Liquor Case

With Matt McGrait and "Eabe" ave
Donald on their way across the Atlandor of the New York College and the same of the New York College and the same of the New York College and the same of the New York College and York C

Louis F. Haffen Refuses to Agree to Compromise
When Tenants Protest to Mayor's Committee
Refusing to consider a proposed compromise with their tenants in a dispute over rent increases, Louis F.
Haffen, former President of Brons Borough and now chief engineer of that borough, and his son, Henry Haffen, abruptly left a hearing of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering in the Municipal Court yesterday.

The compromise was suggested by J.
W. Hilley, chairman of the committee, and to fit the spartment house at 300 and 302 East 1963 Street, the Brons, owne by the older Haffen and his wife and of of which the son is the agent.

The remains the son at the agent.

The Haffen should be made at the expiration of their leases which exceed the 25 per cent fixed by the Legislature. Minimum rents of $43 a month would be advanced to $50.

The Haffen should the tenantsmum rents of $43 a month would be advanced to $50.

The Haffen should the tenantsmum rents of $43 a month would be advanced to $50.

The Haffen should the tenantsmum rents of $43 a month would be advanced to $50.

The Haffen should the tenantsmum rents of $43 a month would be advanced to $50.

The Haffen should the tenants and consented, who said the property was assessed for $41,000 be the ground that the present valuation of maintenance expense for the year amounting to $50.61. There was one furnished the tenants, who retorted that their telephones had been requipped with coin box attachments in the property was assessed for $41,000 be to property was assessed to form the same deacones of the property was assessed to the section of the property was assessed to $40.

The Haffen submitted a schedule to maintenance expense for the year amounting to $50.61. There was one to property was a T. Sayles.
Idkins & McCormick Co.

In Newport Tournament to the New York Exchange for the Wey York Wey out my wish. I do not mean to have my plans by reason of threats as to what may happen to me if I do land in Ireland. Nothing but physical force will prevent me from going on board the Baltic at the appointed time."

Congress Four Years Ago TOPEKA, Kan., July 27.-Dr. Eva Harding, sole candidate on the Socialist

Village to Honor Dead Soldier

The flag in the South Orange Village, N. J., square will be at half staff to-morrow and the bells on the village hall will be tolled in honor of Bernard J. Mahon, son of Mr and Mrs. Bernard Mahon, of Center Street, South Orange, whose body is that of the first South Orange soldier to be brought back from France. Gold Star Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will have Veterans of Foreign Wars, will have charge of the military ceremonies at 9 o'clock and will parade to Sacred Heart Church, Vailsburg, where a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Noon and the body will be sont to Chi cago for interment. Mrs. Joseph was born in Joliet, Ill., fifty-six years ago the daughter of Joseph Groenbaum, a banker of that city. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons.

PATRICK J. McLUSKEY

MRS. ANNA FRONMUELLER

MRS. ANNA FRONMUELLER

Mrs. Anna M. K. G. Fronmueller, seventy, of 91 Moffat Street, Brooklyn, died Sunday at her home. Funeral services were held last night. Interment will be to-day in Gre nwood Cemetery. Mrs. Fronmueller was born in old New York and was widely known on the East Side, where for many years she and her first husband, Henry Goering, conducted the large German Essex Street, She was a member of the East Side Women's Association and the House Owners' Association. She is survived by a brother.

CHARLES RENJAMIN DREYER

CHARLES BENJAMIN DRETER
Charles B. Dreyer, forty-three, a salesman for the Hylo Varnish Corporation for nearly twenty years, died last Thursday at his home, 985 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, after an illness of two months. Funeral services were held the same day and interment was in Mount Lebanon Cemetery. He was a member of many Jewish charity organizations and is survived by his wife and three children.

FREDERICK T. ELDRIDGE

Husband Files New Will Claiming Wife's Estate with the file of a leather merchant of 839 West Broadway, and her six children and Mrs. Solomot New York and Street of the State of the State

Dr. Eva Harding, Socialist
Candidate, Dies in Topeka Was Aspirant for U. S. Senatorship; Ran as Democrat for Congress Four Years Ago

Harding, sole candidate on the Socialist ticket for nomination for United States Senator, died here this morning. She had been in ill health more than a year from heart trouble. She had practiced medicine since coming to Topeks, in 1892.

Dr. Harding became known throughout the state by her activities as a leader in the causes of prohibition, woman suffrage, an eight-hour day for working women and the adoption of a child labor law.

She was the candidate for United States Senator on the Socialist ticket at the general election two years ago, and on that party's present primary ticket for the same office. Four years ago she was the Democratic nominee for Congress in the 1st District.

JAMES J. WILLIAMS

James J. Williams, forty-seven, wide-low, in Brooklyn and Manhattan theatrical circles, died yesterday at his home, 312 South Bayview Avenue, Freeport, L. I., after a short illness. Mr. Williams was born and educated in Brooklyn. Entering the theatrical business when he was quite young, became manager of Blaney's Amphion Theater, on Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, Several years ago he established the Globe Transfer Company, 524 West Fortieth Street, and had since been engaged in theatrical trucking.

He was a member of the Burlesque Club, the Brooklyn Lodge of Elks and several other societies. Services will be held Thursday morning, followed by interment in Weehawkan Cemetry, Mr. Williams is survived Mrs. Addie Joseph, Red Cross worker and wife of Samuei Joseph, who has been connected with the New York Life Insurance Company for many years.

Patrick J. McCluskey, thirty-two private of the 147th Infantry, Co pany H, died Monday as a result to that time he had several to company in the Luneville and St. Mihiel sectors. He was born in Ireland, and before entering the service lived at 932 Pacific Street, Brooklyn. He is survived by two brothers and two sisters. Interment will be Thursday a GREENWICH, Conn., July 27.—Miss Emma Knapp, seventy-eight, daughter of the late Charles W. and Mary J. Knapp, died at the Greenwich Hospital to-day. She did volunteer work for the Red Cross during the war. She is sur-vived by one sister.

vived by one sister.

FREDERICK T. ELDRAIDER.
Frederick T. Eldridge, sixty-two, died Saturday at his home, 89 West Thirtysecond Street, Bayonne, N. J. He was connected with the International Elevating Company and was a member of the Maritime Association of the Port of New York. He is convigual by the mife.

Birth, Engagement, Marriage, Death and In Memoriam Notices may be telephoned to The Tribune any time up to midnight for insertion in the next day's paper. Telephone Beckman 3000.

Grafton, Mass. July 27, 1920, Francis Marbury MacDuffie to Isabel Crompton Smith.

MOORE—On July 26, at her residence, 53% East 13th at, Mary J. Moore, the beloved daughter of the late John H. Moore and Ellen Moore (nee Carroll), Funeral from her late residence on Wednesday, July 28, 5:20 a.m.; thence to St. Lukeke Church, where a solemn requiem high mass will be sung. Interment Calvary.

In all plot, $150, strictly Jewish remeatry, Apply NAT. B. BLUM, Undertaker, 561 West THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY 23d St. By Harlem Train and by Trollay, Combon 20 East 23d St. N. Y.

John W. Lyon 69 E. 175th, 1343 Harlem Coldest Est'd. Economical

he continued actively in the business until he was ninety-three years old. JAMES J. WILLIAMS

lowed by interment in Weehawken Cemetery, Mr. Williams is survived by a wife and son.

MRS. SAMUEL JOSEPH

WILLIAM C. SCHROEDER William C. Schroeder, thirty-eight ormerly a clerk in the National Par-William C. Schroeder, infripengat, formerly a clerk in the National Park Bank, of this city, died Sunday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Schneidermuller, 5008 Church Avenue, Brooklyn, after a brief illness. He is survived by his wife and two children. Interment will be to-day in Evergreens Commerce.

John Kirkland, ninety-eight, a retired distiller, died Sunday at the home of his son, 264 Sterling Place, Brooklyn. His funeral services were held yesterday afternoon, and interment was in be to-day in Greenwood Cemetery.

Brocklyn, N. Y.

WALKER—July 25, 1250, in Buffalo N. Y., Bertha Barbara Bach, wife of the late Right Rev. William D. Walker. The funeral will take piace from St. But tholomew's Chapel, Fark av. and 600 st. New York City, Friday morning at 10.10 o'clock. Friends are invited to at tend. Interment at Kenatoo, N. Y.

WOOD—At Englewood. N. J. July 25 WOOD—At Englewood, N. J. July 27, 1930, Rachel S. Wood, in her 50th year Funeral service at her residence, 61 Hamilton av., Thursday, July 29, at 4:30 p. m.

THE ORIGINAL AND OLD ESTABLISHED STEPHEN MERRITT BURIAL AND CREMATION CO. 161 8th Av. Cor. HARLEM BRANCH 2345 8th Av. Cr. 17th Tel. Chelaca 125 Chelsea 125. No charge for rooms and chap P. W. RADCLIFFE, Pres

At Your Service, Day or Night "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Inc. (Non-Sectarian) 1970 Broadway at 66th St. PHONE COLUMBUS $200 Decutewe Office, 21d St. & Sth Av.

CEMETERY lots for sale; entire plot. $250; half plot. $150; strictly Jewish cemerary Apply NAT. B. BLUM, Undertaker, 551 West 150th st.